

Free On Bond In Larceny

The case of 18-year-old Richard Levin, accused of larceny by trick in obtaining money from a blind man, was continued in Municipal Court Tuesday until Aug. 15. He is free on $500 bond.

Police charge Levin, 571 Oneida av., gave $1 bills to Donald Ash who operates a coffee counter in the basement of City Hall, told Ash they were $5 and accepted the change.

Juvenile Court records show Levin was referred to authorities there three times from 1955 to 1959.

Levin is a temporary employe of the City's Highway Engineering Department. He told police he is a second year engineering student at Ohio State University.
